

LAUREL HIGHLANDS SCHOOL DISTRICT

Student of the Month

Monthly Board Recognition

2011-2012

Monthly, each elementary school identifies at each grade level students of the month. In addition, at monthly board meetings, certain grade levels are recognized; due to the large number of students identified district-wide not all students are recognized at the board level. Specific grade levels have been selected to be recognized at the board level, in addition to being recognized at each building. At the middle school, staff identifies students of the month from every content specific department during each nine weeks and at the high school, staff identifies students of the month from every content specific department monthly.
